$34,000,000 for Freight

A YOUNG American girl, to be hanged in Canada next Friday says: "I hope they will hang me in a pretty dress."
Another American girl at her wedding to an Indian rajah wore $2,000,000 worth of jewelry, including a diamond nose ring. Her husband was painted yellow for part of the ceremony in accordance with Hindu rites.
Both these young women perhaps would have been happier had they thought less about dress, about things put on the outside of the body, and more about developing thought in the inside of the head.

A nest on the New York Stock Exchange has been sold for $250,000. At that price the 1100 eggs on the stock exchange are worth $352,000,000. Last Saturday stock was sold at the rate of 1,000,000 shares an hour, and in spite of time saving devices the ticker was 25 minutes behind the speculators.

There are ups and downs in birds, elevators and stocks, but be careful how you bet on the "down" side in stocks when wages and spending ability in a country move up 50 to 75 per cent and manufacturers can make 33 men do the work of a hundred. Selling short in America is not a safe pastime.

Ask some of the bears. You say "some things are too high." Certainly some things are always too high. But some of them that are too high will go higher. There is one stock now, not too high, that will go some day to heights that will make the bears dizzy.

The writer, by the way, hasn't any of that, or other high priced stock, and can look at things impartially.

Lloyd George takes seriously the "holy war" started by Mohammedans against British rule or domination in Asia and Africa. Lloyd George says it is interesting to reflect that this trouble has arisen in two countries, which were powerfully and highly civilized empires at a time when even the existence of Great Britain was scarcely known.

If Mohammedans have made up their minds to exterminate heretics and infidels, meaning Europeans, that will mean trouble for the British of course. But since the great empires of Asia and Africa have faded away, British gentlemen that used to ride in swamps, and eat their stomachs blue with wood, have learned to fly, distributing poison gas and annoying explosives. These will play a part in calming the holy war. A holy war, on the ground has little chance against war from the sky.

You are reminded that modern big business is really big. Read that Chevrolet, one branch of General Motors, will pay ten million $34,000,000 for railroad freight.

Without wishing sorrow for railroads, something might be done to diminish automobile freight. A Chevrolet car on the Pacific Coast costs $110 freight, from the factory. That is a good deal to pay for a car that will run on its own wheels the two thousand miles from the factory for 25 worth of gasoline and oil, plus a little wear and tear on tires.

The elevated railroad in New York made no money until the fare was reduced from ten cents to five. Railroads will make more when they find a way to carry freight and pass-agers less expensively. That is with realization of the fact that rail road builders have built the country and are entitled to fair treatment.

GETS 6 MONTHS FOR DEATH OF GOODMAN

Six months in the House of Correction, with time off for good behavior, is all that Walter V. Forbes of Dorchester will pay for his part in the death of David Goodman.
The body of Goodman, who served the sturdiest block, was found in a coffin, to which Forbes had dragged it.
For days the case was a mystery. Then Forbes was arrested and today he pleaded guilty to manslaughter. Meanwhile, the medical examiner reported that the man had been strangled.

NAVY COURT TO PROBE BRITISH 'JAZZ' MUTINY

London, March 18 (INS)—First Lord of the Admiralty W. C. Bridgeman announced in the House of Commons today that the naval scandal on the battleship Royal Oak would be investigated by a court martial at Gibraltar. A new version of the "jazz mutiny" in the battleship today says that for a dance given on board the Royal Oak at Malta the ship's official band, composed of sailors and a recruited jazz orchestra, were to play. The orchestra was to play a jazz tune, but when time came for the ship's band to play, the jazz musicians continued playing all evening.

SECRETARY OF LABOR IN PRES. COOLIDGE'S CABINET AND ELCHO CIGARS AGREE

James J. Davis, Secretary of Labor in President Coolidge's Cabinet, says that something must be done to help men thrown out of work by the introduction of machines. In Boston just such a situation now exists. Hundreds of cigar makers have been discharged because machines have taken their places. If you believe Sec. Davis is right then smoke Elcho cigars, which are all hand made.

6 WHO SURVIVED CRASH OF S4 THREE DAYS DIED CALMLY IN THEIR BUNKS

The S4 gave up the secrets of her dead to a board of inquiry. A board of inquiry into the crash of the S4, a ship that was lost in the Atlantic, has found that the six men who survived the crash for three days died calmly in their bunks. The board found that the ship was overloaded and that the captain was negligent. The board also found that the ship was not properly maintained. The board's findings are being used to improve ship safety.

TRACE OF MESSAGE

On the side of the ship was written the trace of the last message sent to the world outside by the ship. The message was a plea for help, and it was written in the ship's log. FULLER BOARD WOULD LIMIT AUTO CASES

Recommendations for disposing of petty automobile and traffic violation cases without taking the time of police, courts or the present-designated "criminals" were made to Governor Fuller today by his judicial council.

The council is composed of nine judges and lawyers, appointed some time ago by the Governor.

In the council's viewpoint, such trivial offenses as parking, passing signals lights unintentionally, turning into wrong streets, passing intersecting streets without slowing, leaving defects in cars such as brakes and lights, and violating local traffic rules should never be brought into court before a judge, requiring the usual arraignment of the accused.

The recommendations to take the traffic chaff out of courts were made by the council after many conferences with Police Commissioner Herbert A. Wilson, State Commissioner of Public Works William, Frank Goodwin, former registrar of motor vehicles, and the present registrar, Capt. George A. Parker.

If the recommendations are carried out and made law, no motorist hereafter will be confronted with a court summons charging him to appear for "the crime of parking" and similar "crimes," as is now the case.

"It is a mistake to brand a person with a criminal record for a petty offense not involving moral turpitude," the council report declared.

"At present, persons charged with these petty offenses are treated the same as those charged with serious crimes, except as to the severity of the penalty."

The council believes that a system of fines could be arranged. In event that the motorist admits guilt, he or his representative, could go direct to a clerk of court with a policeman's order, pay the fine shown on the order and depart with a receipt.

MARSHALL BOY FINALLY DIES OF BROKEN NECK

Pittsburgh, March 19—Rody P. Marshall, Jr., son of a prominent criminal lawyer, who broke his neck two and one-half years ago diving a shallow water at Narraugansett, R.I., has lost his battle with death.

Yours. Marshall, shortly after steady improvement up to a month ago, when a relapse set in and he died steadily, the end coming last night.

At the time of the accident, July 11, 1925, the youth's death was expected momentarily, and his parents made a thrilling dash to his bedside from Europe.

The boy began to improve, and was taken to his home, where Gene Tunney, Bobby Jones, Babe Ruth and other sport kings visited him to offer encouragement in his valiant battle.

STEAL ALCOHOL WORTH $16,000

Sixteen drums containing 800 gallons of chemically pure grain alcohol, worth $16,000 at retail, were stolen from a freight car in the Melrose st. Charlestown, yards of the Boston & Maine Railroad, it was discovered today.

The alcohol was obtained by forcing the door of the car, and apparently was removed in trucks without attracting attention. It is believed it was stolen Saturday night when there was no guard over the car. Boston and railroad police are working on the case.

SHOOT PLANES IN NICARAGUA

Managua, Nicaragua, March 19 (INS)—Two United States airplanes piloted by Marines have been slightly damaged by bullets fired by rebel snipers in the last 24 hours. The aviators narrowly escaped injury.

The bullets were fired from a patch of jungle upon a mountain-side south of El Chipote, where a Marine base has been established. After the shooting the planes scouted over the district to an effort to locate the snipers, but they were not seen.

It is believed that there were only a handful of rebels in the sniping band, possibly not more than three or four. The main body of Gen. Augusto Sandino's rebels is keeping out of sight. It is hiding in the northern part of the republic, not far from the Honduran frontier.

LABORITE PASSES LIE TO BRITISH PREMIER

London, March 19 (INS)—Tom Williams, a Laborite member of the House of Commons, was suspended amid an uproar this afternoon, when he accused Premier Stanley Baldwin of "making lying statements."

The accusation was made immediately after the Premier refused to order an inquiry into the notorious Zime view letter. This letter, which caused the downfall of the MacDonald government, gave the impression, after its publication, that the Labor cabinet gave attentive ear to the demands of the Communist party.

Armed guards kept watch and ward today over the fabulous array of gifts bestowed upon the former Maharajah and his American princess wife.

The gifts were in the ex-Maharajah's palace at Barwah, in the state of Indore, where he and his wife, beaten gold and silver ornaments, fine silks and jade and ivory carvings.

The guests who flocked to Barwah from all parts of the native state of Indore for the nuptials at midnight on Saturday have returned to their homes bearing gifts from the bridegroom.

His Majesty's grandmother, who came to India for the marriage, accompanied the bride and groom to Europe on their honeymoon.

Despite the long and tiring ceremony of the wedding and the great bridal feast which followed, the Maharajah, who is in poor health, bore up without any outward signs of fatigue.

Chamber Fuller today sent back to the Legislature the bill fixing

Downer's tax limit at $15.00 per $1000 of valuation, with the recommendation that it be reduced to 15 cents.

The Governor said the taxpayers of Boston were last year promised a reduction of 10 in the tax rate, and he believes they are entitled to it.

"If the assurance of this reduction had been given, I would have signed this bill," he said.

His action was taken following a conference in the Governor's office with Corporation Counsel Frank R. DeLoach, State Auditor, special counsel, and City Budget Commissioner.

Gov. Fuller also sent back another bill permitting the city of Boston to appropriate $200,000 for hospital purposes.

He accepted that the bill be changed so that only $150,000 would be turned outside the city limit.

In reference to the tax limit bill, Governor Fuller said: "I am not in a position to say whether the bill of $150,000 is in this bill."

He pointed out that the state tax was reckoned from $12,000,000 in 1927 to $9,500,000 in 1928, making the assessed valuation of Boston less by 50 cents per $1000. Also, the amount received by Boston in income taxes in 1927 exceeded the estimate by $25,000, an amount also equal to approximately 50 cents per $1000 of assessed valuation, the Governor said.

Al Smith to Take His Zoo to Washington—If

Albany, N. Y., March 19 (AP)—If Governor Smith goes to the White House, Washington is assured of seeing at least part of the famous zoological museum.

"Zoo" which has been gathered together by the Governor during the last 10 years.

Seven dogs, one deer, three monkeys, three raccoons, seven pheasants, 12 gold fish and four parrots comprise the Governor's Zoo.

The gold fish and parrots he regards as "house animals," but they also fall within the "Zoo" classification, according to the executive.

"What are you going to do with the animals?" the Governor was asked today.

"I'm going to take them with me when I go," he replied.

"Where?"

"Wherever I go."

DRIVER FINED $200 IN SERIOUS LYNX CRASH

James Donahue, a truck driver in Lynn Court today was fined $200 for operating a vehicle at an unsafe speed and safety, as a result of a collision on January 30, when he crashed into a car.

Donahue, 35, of South St., sustained injuries that caused pain in his back and neck, and his machine was in collision with Donahue's truck at Summer St. Commercial St., Lynn, was not guilty.

The truck skidded by a telephone pole and overturned falling on top of Donahue, who was on the sidewalk. Donahue escaped.

Ten Miners Lost in Fire

Vancouver, B. C., March 19 (AP)—Ten miners were lost in a fire today in a mine near here.

The mine was virtually abandoned for ten years, but it was recently purchased in a lease which destroyed the mine.

The fire broke out in a mine shaft near the top of the mine, and it was not until the fire was extinguished that the bodies of the miners were found.

$50,000 SLUSH FUND STORY IN CONFUSION

Washington, March 19 (INS)—The sensational story, involving the name of a high government official, and a great oil corporation, told during the bond inquiry in Chicago, was thrown into confusion today when International News Service learned the Senate public lands committee had no definite information to support claims that a $50,000 fund had been used.

The "mystery witness," who appeared in Chicago, reported only that a mysterious package was sent by mail to a man in Washington, Ill., when actually intended for a prominent official in Washington, D. C.

The witness had not seen the package, knew nothing of its contents, and could not say whether it actually was delivered to the Washington, Ill., man.

He said, however, that telegrams were exchanged between officials of the oil corporation and the Washington, Ill., man, and that the latter already have confirmed that much of his story.

Government agents have been dispatched to Washington, Ill., to check up on the story. The town is 125 miles southwest of Chicago and near Peoria. They will interview the man with whom the oil company correspondents are dealing, and he received the mysterious package.

THROUGH PROBE

The story will be thoroughly aired at a committee hearing this week. The Chicago witness, since recently identified by Senator Saxton (R., N. J.), as a "Mr. Adams," will be summoned Wednesday or Thursday.

"I can't discuss the story at all," said Mr. Adams. "If it is true, it will become public enough; if it is not true, it would work grave injury upon innocent persons. It is so sensational that we could not make it public without checking up as far as lies in our power."

Senator Ferris Has Chance

Washington, March 19 (INS)—Senator Warren N. Hearnes (D., Mich.), critically ill, has a sliver of chance for recovery, it was learned today by his physicians.

SOCIETY STILL ARRIVING AT PALM BEACH—BETTY AIDEN

The Princess of Thurn and Taxis Puts Up at the Exclusive Vineta, Palm Beach

SOCIETY AT PALM BEACH STRUCK A COMFORTABLE LATE season stride this week although her voyage parties for departing nobles, or welcoming some of the late coming great ones to the American Riviera. Otherwise, the smart set disposed itself with enjoyable rather than a feverish activity. One of the great ones arriving for a short late season stay was the Princess of Thurn and Taxis, whose Palm Beach domicile was at the quiet and secluded Vineta, but whose Palm Beach progress had nothing of quietness in its makeup.

THERE SOUNDED A FANFARE OF TRUMPETS FOR THE arrival in Palm Beach of the Princess Lohkowsky who was, before she married the good looking young Hungarian aristocrat and prince, Miss Anna Lohkowsky, daughter of the C. B. Lohkowsky of Chicago and Watch Hill. In returning to Palm Beach the princess is also returning to the scene of her romance, where she and Prince Edward, son of an ancient Hungarian house, became engaged. The red, southern moon and the mellow sunlight brought to flower a sweet little romance, that culminated in orange blossoms and bride's cake at "Norman Hall," the Watch Hill summer home of the Lohkowsky summer.

NOW THE PRINCESS IS WITH HER PARENTS AND HER SISTER, Mrs. Clement A. Griscom, 34, and the family group is domiciled beneath one of the roof-tops making up in sum total the super-exclusive Everglades Club. For tea and dancing, in the Orange Garden, the princess one afternoon wore a stunning black lace frock and an enormous black hat, and Mrs. Griscom was in bright rose with a large hat equally as wide and of course as becoming as that of the princess. Mrs. C. B. Lohkowsky, mother of these two interesting young matrons, was a girlish figure herself, in plated flat crepe. Blessed with a soft and slender figure, Mrs. Lohkowsky has likewise a carriage and poise royally might aspire to.

SEEMINGLY APPROACHING SPRING IN THE SOCIAL STRONGHOLD seems to have borrowed a deal of winter's charm as far as nobles are concerned, since so many are arriving daily the departures are more than counterbalanced. Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carnegie, 42, have come down from their lovely Fernandina estate, their island off the coast of Florida, for two weeks of what brilliancy (and it is the glittering sort always) Palm Beach has to offer its regular visitors. "Lalala! Whitehall houses Mrs. William K. Dick, who arrived recently with Miss Phyllis Walsh of Philadelphia.

ALTHOUGH THE BOSTON CONTINGENT IN THE SOCIETY SPA is never so large in numbers as New York, Chicago and Philadelphia sends south each winter, it makes up in individual importance what it lacks in actual numbers. Mr. and Mrs. Richard D. Sears, Jr., have been guests of Mr. W. David Owen at Bayswater, on Brazilian ave. Of course, the Sears move along the accepted Palm Beach way of the exclusives. At the recent enormous costume ball, climax of the season, they wore some interesting Maschurian costumes, quaint costumes of indisputable authenticity. Even in a mass of costumes, the like of which seldom has been added to Washingtonian chronicles. Mrs. Sears wore, Mr. and Mrs. Sears were noted and notable.

A MUSICAL AT THE WHITE House on the evening of March 22 is one of the several little surprises which Mrs. Coolidge is giving Washington society since her return to the Federal City from Massachusetts. Musicals have been, for some time, Mrs. Coolidge's pet social activity when she is herself at home, and some delightful affairs have pleasantly been added to Washingtonian chronicles. Mrs. Coolidge is also adding some pleasant notes to sartorial chronicles. One costume recently worn by the First Lady was of rich blue, an ensemble creating a springlike touch with the new wrap having a swinging cape collar and deep beige cut outs.

WASHINGTONIANS, BOTH those temporarily in the

Theodore Ayer Ellen Halliwell Jessie Bancroft
BOSTON'S YOUTHFUL SOCIETY GETS INTO FANCY DRESS
Miss Ayer was a sister of mercy garbed in white; Miss Halliwell wore a saucy Pierrette affair of new meadow green with black pom-poms, and Miss Bancroft wore a silver cloth cassock-like robe.

Musical to Be Held at the White House

once Trumbull during the Coolidge White House insara, this would another interesting wedding be added to the White House list. It would vary procedure a bit, to have a son of a President wed within the White House, and a very satisfactory variation too, one that would set the entire country agog. The world and his wife would deary low the pomp and circumstance surrounding such a nuptial ceremony.

SOCIAL CHIT-CHAT IN WASHINGTON has it that running sock and sack for popularity in the social race, with honors going to neither, are the Vice-President and Mrs. Dawes and Speaker and Mrs. Langworth. Non-official and official business and hosts contribute to the gaiety with festivities having first place of these important couples, then the other exclusive non-official hostesses, Mrs. Townsend, Washington's most exclusive non-official hostess, the Vice-President and his spouse. And ambassadors, ministers and other big wigs came to meet them. Mrs. Peter Goshert Garry entertained for the Langworths and the great of several nations were guests.

MRS. TOWNSEND'S DINNER companies are as brilliant as any gathered—for grand occasions in the city on the Potomac. And her dinner decorations are as brilliant as her guest lists. For the Dawes dinner her handsome residence burst into a veritable springlike beauty with hundreds of Josephine and scores of clusters of acacia to blend with the deep red and iris of Mrs. Mrs. Townsend, so the olden chronicle says, gave three flower balls for Josephine's ladies of prime place, in other years, Miss Alice Roosevelt, Miss Ethel Roosevelt and Miss Helen Taft, now known to fame as Mrs. Langworth, Mrs. Derby and Manning, respectively.

PACKERS LOSE DELAY SEARCH FOR HINCHLIFFE

Washington, March 19 (AP)—The "packers' consent decree," by which the big packing companies agreed to confine themselves to the most packing business and give up handling unrelated commodities, was sustained today by the Supreme Court, which refused to cancel the agreement.

The packers' agreement in the case upheld today that their consent was given to its entry upon the condition that it would not be considered an admission that they had not fully complied with the antitrust law. They charged that the government violated this agreement, for filing briefs claiming that the entry of the decree implied a finding of "guilt" necessary to support it.

OLDS TO QUIT AS UNDER-SECRETARY OF STATE

Washington, March 19 (AP)—Robert C. Olds of St. Paul, Under-Secretary of State, said today he intended to resign his post. At the same time, he said, reports that he would take the place in the organization of J. P. Morgan & Co. New York, left vacant by the appointment of Dwight W. Morrow as ambassador to England, were incorrect.

No one is safe!

Body odor...why we can't tell when we offend

Body odor always betrays—but seldom warns its victim. You know yourself that though you notice instantly the faintest hint of odor in others—the guilty ones usually remain unaware of giving offense.

Why? Simply because once an odor becomes familiar to us, our own sense of smell becomes dulled to it. Very often, this misleads even fastidious people into thinking they are safe—while actually they do offend.

It's just as possible, then, that at times we, too, may offend others—without knowing it!

Body odor plays no favorites. No one is safe from body odor. To live, we must perspire. And in cooler weather—with activities indoors, in warm, stuffy rooms—body odor is more prevalent than ever.

On cool days, our millions of pores continually give off invisible perspiration—often as much as a quart of waste every 24 hours.

This body moisture, whether visible or invisible, always offends. And so one escapes it. All of us—no matter what our position or occupation in life—may offend unless we take precautions.

No need to risk embarrassment. Yet there is a simple way to be sure we're safe from body odor. Just wash and bathe often with the delightful toilet soap we have millions enjoy—Lifebuoy—it deodorizes.

The same mild and abundant antiseptic lather that helps protect health by removing germs—prevents body odor by purifying pores.

For complexion, too, this gentle Lifebuoy lather is marvelously beneficial. It keeps skin clear and satin-smooth.

The New Insulated Glenwood with Built-In Incinerator

MISS DARLING—Home Economics Expert of the Boston Consolidated Gas Co.—will give a special demonstration of the new Incinerator model of the Insulated Glenwood Gas Range this afternoon.

Even if you know all about the advantages of the Glenwood Insulated Oven for better baking and a cooler kitchen, you will be interested to see how this remarkable new Built-In Incinerator enables you to dispose of all your kitchen waste in the quickest and most sanitary way.

You will be welcome—any time between 2 and 4:30.

Glenwood Ranges MAKE COOKING EASY

Get rid of all kitchen waste at once, like this

Boston Consolidated Gas Co.

Dear bewildered Madam:

There are so many biscuits and queer biscuit names! How in the world is a person going to remember the names of the biscuits she wants?

Fortunately, you don't have to.

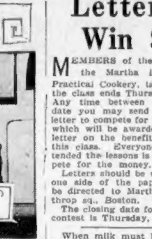

Long ago we gave our many different kinds of biscuits one family name. We call them Sunshine because they're full of it... born in it... baked in it.

You only have to remember the name Sunshine. It is the password, at your grocer's, to fine, plump Soda Crackers, luscious Fig Bars, oven-crisp Graham Crackers and many other fine biscuits.

This Will Remove Smoke From Room

To remove all smoke from a room in a few minutes, dip a towel in vinegar and hot water (equal parts), wring out, and hang it gently over the head about the room.

To keep milk from curdling when boiling, add a pinch of baking soda.

Good for Rarebits

HAVE you been looking for something new in a sandwich spread, or a tasty if hasty rarebit, baked macaroni or potato soufflé?

Here is a new cheese food made by a process which retains the nutritive value of whole milk—the milk sugar, milk proteins and body-building milk minerals, elements lost in making ordinary cheese. It is more nutritious than milk. Digested as easily as milk, and acts as an aid to the digestion of other foods.

This cheese product is really more than cheese. Like milk, it should be included in the diet of everyone, children, elderly persons, even invalids. It is a regulative food that balances the diet.

Try it in your next rarebit or macaroni and cheese dish, and enjoy the wonderful flavor. Will not string or become lumpy in cooking either. It has won legions of friends for its delightful flavor and smooth, creamy texture, and above all because of its easy digestibility.

Here's the way that we prepared the unusually delicious macaroni dish which is illustrated above.

Boil macaroni, prepare white sauce, cut fine 1 c. of the more-than-cheese product. Butter a pudding dish. Put in layers macaroni, white sauce, cheese. Dust top with cracker crumbs, dot with butter. Bake in a hot oven for about 15 minutes. This more-than-cheese product browns beautifully and does not become lumpy or stringy. It really makes the most delicious macaroni ever. Do try it—you'll come back for more, I know.

Dressing Adds Zest

FOR added dressing that will add zest to leftovers, that will be a spur to jaded appetites, try this Russian dressing.

RUSSIAN DRESSING—Two cups chili sauce, 4 tbsp. ketchup, 3 tbsp. olive oil, 1 chopped hard-boiled egg, 1/2 tsp. vinegar, 1 tsp. prepared mustard, 1 dozen small chopped red and green peppers, a dash of paprika.

Mix thoroughly all ingredients but egg and egg yolk in lightly oiled bowl. Fork the chopped peppers, and lightly chop the egg yolk. Chill and serve immediately.

The ketchup and chili sauce used in this Martha Lee kitchen are products from the finest materials, handled in absolutely clean manner by experienced chefs, who work under most hygienic conditions. These products are put up in sterilized bottles only—yet each bottle is sealed by their blue labels—and are never opened in bulk. I know you will find them particularly desirable on meats, chops, fish, etc., and also in making oyster cocktails. These products are not artificially colored or flavored, but contain nature's own preservative and retain nature's own flavor of tomato. They keep wonderfully well after opening.

A favorite sandwich of mine is made from two slices of buttered toast, four pieces of blue label systems and a generous amount of chili sauce.

Here Are Antidotes for Too Much Salt

When you have put too much salt in cooking food, stretch a clean cloth tightly over the kettle and sprinkle a tablespoonful of flour over the cloth; let contents of kettle steam a few minutes and the flour will absorb the surplus salt. An excellent antidote for too much salt is to stir a little coarse brown sugar into gravy vegetables or soup and the dish will become palatable again. When food is made too salty, it may be counteracted by adding a tablespoonful each of vinegar and sugar.

If Kerosene Heater Happens to Smoke

If a kerosene heater smokes or has a disagreeable odor when lighted, place it on a box about one foot from the floor. A place of sun-cupped draped into the tank will remove unpleasant odor and give a clearer flame. If the heater gets turned too high and cannot be lowered, throw a handful of salt to put it out at once.

This Test Shows if Milk Has Been Watered

Test for watered milk—Dip a well polished knitting needle in the milk for a few seconds; if milk is pure it will form a large drop at the end of needle; if watered it will run down quickly and drop in several small drops or to the point will appear dry and clean.

Just How to Remove Burned Taste of Milk

When milk is slightly scorched the burnt taste can be removed by pouring the milk into cold water and adding a pinch of salt to the milk. First rinse in cold water the dish or pan in which milk is to be heated, and it will not occur.

Hear Chef on Wednesday

NICOLA DE PASCALE, chef of the Kenmore hotel, will be our guest next Wednesday, the first of his day in the new and enlarged Martha Lee Kitchen.

Mr. De Pascale is a native of Amalfi, Italy, and has been connected with many prominent hotels abroad and in this country. Among the Kenmore specialties that Mr. De Pascale will prepare will be Putah Salanari, baked Boston schrod, Pennsylvania style, the Eggs in Light Club, that are so popular at the Kenmore, and Spinach Dumplings.

Now that we have more than double our former seating capacity, we hope that no one will hesitate to visit the Martha Lee Kitchen on chef's day for fear of not finding a chair. There will be room for all, so do plan now to take advantage of this interesting lesson in practical housework.

It is really quite unusual for a famous chef to find time to give a practical lesson in home cooking to interested housewives. Such a lesson would cost at least $100 a day, or $25 for a private lesson, so you see this will really be something you cannot afford to miss. Wednesday at 2:30 p.m.

To prevent burning of cooking food, set an alarm clock for the time when it should be removed from the stove.

DAURIE DARLING

WHY not forget for once Monday's routine of household duties and join your neighbors at the house-warming party we are giving here at 5 Winthrop sq. to celebrate the opening of our new and enlarged Martha Lee Kitchen and auditorium?

In addition to our regular Monday cooking lesson, there will be an entertainment, refreshments, and a general good time for all.

Mrs. Dorothy W. Bradford, educational field worker for the Post Products Company, Inc., will give the cooking lesson on cakes.

Mrs. Dorothy Bradford, director of the home economics department of the Boston Consolidated Gas Company, will be on hand to tell you about our wonderful new insulated Glenwood gas range, with its safe sanitary incinerator that burns up all garbage and waste without smoke or odor.

Our Hoosier Cabinet and Uxilla, Crisp sink, and Kitchen Aid—the electrical food preparer of the home—are other important furnishings of our model kitchen. Not to forget our interesting collection of electrical appliances, too. Warmer, doughnut iron, grill, toaster, percolator, thermostat, etc.

Our new bright colored Polar-wave gives a pretty note of color to the new Lively inlaid linoleum.

And we have a complete outfit of Wear Ever aluminum.

Winifred Pettit Scott—whose readings are a feature each Wednesday in the Martha Lee morning broadcast from Station WJLB—will entertain with two short one-act plays and a monologue; and that popular Wholesome Unit, Charles Hayat, will sing several popular tunes.

Refreshments furnished through the generosity of Boston merchants will include Hood's ice cream, assorted cookies from the Loose Wiles Company and cakes from the Hoosier Cakes Company. Mr. H. H. Cullerby of the Chalmers Ginger Ale Company is sending a supply of both pale and golden ginger ale.

Mr. Frank Archer, Sr., vice-president of the Mecca Company, is giving Mecca souveners and Mecca.

Our party starts at 2 p.m. in the new Martha Lee Kitchen, fifth floor of the Hearst Building, 5 Winthrop sq.—which is just a block off Summer st., at Otis or Devonshire. Do try to come!

give up coffee

—here's one fine coffee that lets you sleep

Fragrant and cheery this coffee is—yet you can drink it, even at midnight, and sleep. Kaffee Hag Coffee is a delightful blend of the world's finest quality coffees—but it has 97% of the drug caffeine removed. It will not keep you awake.

We extract the caffeine by an exclusive process. We leave the flavor and strength untouched. All the quick, bracing effects of coffee remain. They have never come from caffeine anyhow—but from aromatic coffee oils and heat. Caffeine stimulation doesn't even begin until two hours after drinking.

Thus, there's no such thing as missing it at meal-times—though it may keep you awake hours afterwards.

How welcome Kaffee Hag will be to thousands who have been forced to put up with unsatisfying coffee substitutes because they have never before been able to get real coffee without caffeine!

Try Kellogg's Kaffee Hag. This rich, satisfying coffee will add cheer to all your meals. And everybody can enjoy it unstinted. The drug that might affect nerves is gone. The drug that might upset sleep is gone. The drug that might upset sleep is gone. The drug that might upset sleep is gone.

Most grocers carry Kaffee Hag Coffee. Full one-pound cans. Air-tight. Ground or in the bean. Ask for it, too, at hotels and restaurants. On dining-cars.

Or, if you prefer, send 10c to cover cost of mailing and we will send you a generous sample of Kaffee Hag Coffee. We invite you to compare it with any other coffee you've ever before tasted. Mail the coupon in the left-hand corner for sample can.

AMERICAN-ETTES Codfish and Flappers By Masterson

Pride of the Kitchen

AMONG the latest and penates of our Martha Lee Kitchen furnishings nothing has a deeper hold on our affections than our complete set of aluminum cooking ware.

We know that not only does it lend beauty and brightness to our kitchen, but it does much to eliminate worry from our cooking.

We know that chips will cook to perfection on the thick aluminum surface of our aluminum frying pans, that fried eggs needles will come out on the thick aluminum surface of our aluminum frying pans, that the even-gold crust on our waffles will bear mute testimony to the superiority of this superior kitchenware.

No matter what catastrophe befalls in the way of forgotten gas and stove burners, our aluminum ware emerges from the smoky battle with a shining face.

They say a watched pot never boils, but water boils in aluminum kettles in five minutes because the metal takes the heat so quickly and distributes it so evenly to all parts of the utensil.

Aluminum utensils of the brand we use have no means to fry one's patience and ruin one's manicure. They do not rust, they do not contain and cannot form any poisonous compound with fruit or vegetable acids. But, cannot crack or chip. Food cooked in this ware requires less stirring and there is no fear of burning. Even milk burned by accident on the bottom of an aluminum pan will not taste scorched. However, burning is a rare catastrophe, for heat does not collect in the bottom of these utensils, but spreads rapidly and evenly over the entire surface.

Recently I came to business leave, leaving a stew cooking on my gas range. Two hours later, a hurried SOS called my junior to the rescue. That night I viewed, undimmed, the charred ruins of the stew burned into deep on my favorite aluminum kettle.

It certainly did look a wreck! I would salvage, but I'm an optimist and, having no aluminum, I removed the charred remains, put the pan to soak in a little soap suds and warm water and forgot it. That evening a little elbow grease completed some soap-suds and I was proud to the shining veteran kettle. As we were everything else, however, there's always a leak in aluminum. Be sure that you are getting one

Try This Rule for Luscious Cake Iceing

For luscious cake iceing take 30 marshmallows, 1/2 c. walnuts, 1 c. sugar, 1 dozen Marshmallow cream, 1/2 c. water.

Put sugar and water until strings. Four beating mixture over marshmallows and beat until fluffy. Add 1/2 c. walnuts, 1/2 c. sugar, 1 dozen Marshmallow cream. Finish beating.

hundreds come in value for every dollar you spend for these utensils. Don't be tempted to buy aluminum simply because it is cheap. And on the other hand, don't be tempted to buy a cheap aluminum set. Buy a set of aluminum of excellent price. Last week I saw a so-called aluminum waterless cake covered for $20, which is practically duplicated in my own brand of aluminum for about $150.

We will be glad to tell you the brand name the next time you drop into the new Martha Lee Kitchen, which I hope will be soon, and we'd like to show you the latest additions to our aluminum outfit.

If vegetable or other foods become scorched, remove the cover at once and set the kettle in a pan of cold water. In 15 or 20 minutes, the suggestion of scorched will be gone, or nearly so. If burned, cut away the burned parts, reheat and season.

Enroll for Class

HAVE you sent in your enrollment for the second class in the Martha Lee School of Practical Cookery, which will open March 26, in our new and larger Martha Lee Kitchen and auditorium?

Although we can register 500 ladies, you had better send your registration in now if you haven't already, as we have 65 members signed in date.

The classes will be held on Monday and Thursday of each week, with Wednesday observed as chef's day, weekly. Tuesday lessons will be omitted in our second course.

The class is of 12 weeks' duration, which means that the last lesson will be on June 5, just before everybody begins to be busy with graduation and summer migrations.

Diplomas are awarded to those who attend 12 lessons during the 12 weeks. At the close of each course $20 in gold will be awarded for the best letter on this school.

There are no charges or obligations of any kind in registering for this course of lessons in practical home cooking, except that we ask you not to register unless you intend to attend at least 12 of the lessons given during the course. As our registration is necessarily limited, it is really not fair to register unless you are reasonably sure of being able to attend class once weekly. Registrations will be accepted in the order they are received, and I suggest your sending YOTIS in today.

This is a thoroughly practical school of home-making, without frills or furbelows.

Every branch of cooking is covered during the 12 weeks' course, and while our recipes are simple, they are, nevertheless, thoroughly practical, "different" and as economical as is consistent with proper nutrition. Your neighbors are enjoying and benefiting by these free lessons, why not you?

May we have your registration promptly?

FIGHTS CITY MANAGER PLAN FOR CAMBRIDGE

Arguing against the city manager plan for Cambridge, Elliot H. Good, win, State Civil Service Commissioner, today addressed the Cambridge League of Women Voters at the First Congregational parish house.

"Only the untiring energy of the responsible citizens will bring about government by the ring and not, so long as the head of city government is universal suffrage and frequent elections, choosing the overboard structure will not guarantee selection of the fitted, or even of the fit," he said.

BOSTON MEATS ARE SAFE, SAYS MULLOWNEY

With the exception of record beef, Bostonians may have more to be reassured by, declared Dr. P. H. Mullowney, deputy commissioner of health, in a radio talk over WJLB on the selection, care and preparation of foodstuffs today.

"Many small dealers stock their own beef and are careless about it," Dr. Mullowney charged. "It behooves the housewife who is buying this product to see that the meat comes from fresh beef, because if from any other source the meat is unfit for food."

Boston has rigid inspection of meats, he said, requiring inspection both before and after the animals are slaughtered.

"Less disease is found in lamb and mutton than any other animal," Dr. Mullowney pointed out. "Yet all meat should be thoroughly cooked, especially all pork products, which require 30 minutes to the pound. Meats should be placed in a clean dish in a hot water, but not washed until ready to cook, and such products as brains, liver and sweetbreads should be particularly well chosen, for food as these spoil very quickly. Care should be used in draining poultry to try to keep it from becoming contaminated, the meat and poultry should always be washed thoroughly before cooking, he said."

Sterilization of all leftovers before serving again was urged as a precaution against possible spoilage, especially in summer.

"The bread box should be sealed and aired at least once every week," Dr. Mullowney said. "The air is full of germs, and if it is not changed, it will breed out of a box of warm, fresh bread put into a box with fresh bread. Take the wrapper off before airing the bread in the box."

A warning never to buy a can of food when the can is swelled or bulged was sounded by the speaker, who said that this indicates spoilage and is often seen in condensed milk as well as in other canned products.

The old idea was to empty the can and use the contents, but now it is just as bad to leave the can empty in an open dish. Put it in the refrigerator for food.

Moist on hams and bacon does not mean spoilage, he said, but it indicates spoilage and is often seen in condensed milk as well as in other canned products.

The old idea was to empty the can and use the contents, but now it is just as bad to leave the can empty in an open dish. Put it in the refrigerator for food.

2 Harvard Students Boost Hero Fund

DREDS like those performed by the three members of the 263 passenger and crew of the wrecked steamship Robert E. Lee might live thrill all who read of them. But what of the bereaved relatives those heroes left behind?

Having been made a better man, a woman from visiting of their exploits. After you are not willing to contribute to the fund for their families. The fund was started by Nathan Strauss, New York philanthropist, who gave a check for $1000 to the Boston Evening American. The latest contributions came from Joseph F. W. Latham and Mrs. W. Goldner of Harvard University, who sent a check for $100, and Mrs. T. P. Fynn of Gardner, who gave $25. With their check for $750 the Harvard boys wrote the following:

"Please accept our small contribution to the fund for the families of the crew of the steamship Lee disaster. May we take the opportunity of congratulating you on the readiness with which you have undertaken the task of this fund."

The fund is still open, folks. Address your communications to Hero Fund Boston Evening American, 2 Westin Ave., Boston.

HUB GOOD WILL PARTY FINE SAILORS

By HERT FORD

S. K. Calamane, March 19 (VIA Tropical Radio Telegram Co.)—Honorary degrees of "M. M." were conferred today on many members of the Boston Chamber of Commerce "good will" party bound for the West Indies and Central America. A jury award and sea prevailed all day Sunday, but, thanks to the steady rising qualities of the Calamane and the Cuban Fruit Company, the great majority of those on board did not skip breakfast, luncheon or dinner. And the degree "M. M." means present—Every Meal.

The ship's company has shaken down into a happy family, and the good will manifested has become so apparent that a squad of passengers from New York, who are to leave the ship at Havana, heartily expressed regrets that they were not going to share the full cruise with the New England party.

Capt. Harry Spencer and his officers and crew have won the approval of everyone on board for their courtesy and efficiency. Capt. Spencer is known throughout the West Indies as "Hurricane Harry" even since he brought his ship unscathed through a tempest that raged through the Spanish Main some years ago.

W. J. Fortune, vice-president of the Chamber of Commerce, National Bank, leader of the expedition, proudly reports he had not missed a single meal yet and he was looking forward to the 11 o'clock luncheon and cracker visit of the island.

J. Paul Foster of the Chamber of Commerce is busy attending to details and seeing that everyone is comfortable. Nautical lightship was passed at 11 o'clock on Sunday morning, but most the party left the Virginia coast Sunday evening. Everybody on board is happy.

HELD FOR ATTACK ON HIS SISTER-IN-LAW

Male and declining either to tell his story or to plead before the jury, John Bernzani of Shepard St., Lynn, was held for attack on his sister-in-law, charged with serious attacks on his 15-year-old, sister-in-law, Lynn Judge Lewis, in holding Bernzani, continuing the case until March 26 for hearing.

Little Hub Heiress Only Wants Dime for Movies

THE HEIR IS 'AFRAID OF RICHES'

"A bit of sunshine in a drab existence, my two little girls are! That is why I fight to see my daughters taken care of with the luxuries they should have."

Mrs. Anna Griffith, tall, stately blonde mother of Virginia and Georgiana, whose father she is seeking to have declared legally dead so that the girls may come into an inheritance left by the missing money, was somewhat bitter today when she spoke of her two children's struggle for bare existence in the last seven years.

It was seven years ago that Mrs. Griffith, with two infants on her hands, was deserted by her husband in Rochester, N. Y., and finally was compelled to ask aid of relatives to come to Boston and work. They now live at 62 Massachusetts ave.

This week the mother will leave for Hamilton, Ont., to fight in court for possession of the $15,000 inheritance for her daughters, an inheritance that will depend on them if the father is declared legally dead.

But on the eve of the expected court fight, Mrs. Griffith today, in her first interview relative to the legacy, disclosed that she feared the dangers of wealth may be even greater than the dangers of poverty.

"I'm a bit nervous," she said in explaining her attitude toward her children. "And now comes a new fear for my daughters. One reads and hears so much about kidnapping and murdering of little ones abroad for a penny that I am afraid harm may come to mine because of this inheritance."

And now it's a bean for the celebration plates.

The retention of the codfish on Massachusetts plates is provided for in a bill filed by Representative Arthur M. Brooks of Dedham.

Representative Frank W. Osborne of Lynn filed a similar petition calling for representation of a hoot and shoe.

Today Representative George P. Anderson of Boston introduced a bill calling for a repeal of the lean pot on the plates.

In the monthly Register of Motor Vehicles George A. Parker has announced the codfish is out and all well.

60,000 IN BUCHAREST TO OUST BRATIANU

Bucharest, March 19 (INS)—Like the Fascist march upon Rome when Mussolini was swept into power as dictator of Italy, more than 60,000 members of the Rumanian National Front party marched upon Bucharest to back up their leader, Julius Maniu, in demanding resignation of the Bratianu cabinet.

Today the streets were filled with Rumanians who declared they would remain until their demands were fully met.

Maniu, whose appointment as premier is demanded by the peasant party, held a long conference with seven Maniu and the three members of the regent's council. Many mass meetings have been held to the last 24 hours.

Troops are ready for possible disorders. Many have been brought in from other districts to strengthen the city garrisons.

Premier Bratianu, brother of the throne from his sixty-year-old son, King Michael.

Medical Examiner Nathaniel P. Brown returned a verdict of death by strangulation with suicidal intent.

Canned Tomatoes Supplant Beans in Gobs' Mess

Pittsburgh, March 19 (AP)—No more does the navy bean hold first place in the gobs' vegetable diet. Canned tomatoes, peas and corn now outrank it in the order named.

Figures given the supplies for the entire navy for one year, read in a speech here today by Secretary Wilbur, showed the personnel ate 1,084,000 pounds of canned and string beans as against 4,000,000 pounds of tomatoes, 1,372,000 pounds of peas, and 2,564,000 pounds of corn. The lowest on the vegetable list was canned pumpkins, 290,000 pounds.

REJECT 'L' BILL COMPROMISE

A new "L" bill, containing provisions for extension of public control and an option by the state to purchase $10,000,000 in common stock at not more than $15 a share was today submitted in executive session to the joint committee of street railways and metropolitan affairs and rejected by a vote of 10 to 1.

Senator George Bacon of Boston described the bill as a combination of all the worst ideas that have been advanced by the Interstate Commerce Commission, the Boston, and the Boston.

The outstanding features of the latest measure, known as the Bacon-Gilman compromise, are: Extension of public control and non-transferability of stock. The bill provides for the collection of a 10-cent toll for the use of the streetcar, and for the collection of a 10-cent toll for the use of the streetcar, and for the collection of a 10-cent toll for the use of the streetcar.

3 ESCAPE WHEN 950-POUND DOORS SLAM

Joseph Walter, superintendent of Police Headquarters Building, and two watchmen, narrowly escaped injury today when two huge front doors, each weighing 950 pounds, which had been removed for repairs, were blown together by a gust of wind. Glass was scattered about the steps when the big doors clanged together, and it was necessary to remove the ornate bronze bars in order to replace the glass. The doors were being made in the hinges in order that persons of ordinary strength might open the doors without effort for assistance. As a precaution, it was necessary to remove the ornate bronze bars in order to replace the glass. Danny Will Start in Box To-day for Red Sox; Lefty Wiltse to Finish Up

By JOE CASIMIAN
St. Petersburg, Fla., March 19—The Red Sox invaded the Braves camp grounds today intent upon scalping their Hub rivals for the second time this spring and clinching the championship of the old town.

As was to be expected, the fans gave the Braves in Bradenton, which they won, 9 to 8, a most cheering reception. The Sox were the victors in the first game, but they were the losers in the second. The Sox were the victors in the first game, but they were the losers in the second.

Tribe Hope to Even Up With Sox Today

By NICK FLETLEY

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 19—The Braves step out today to try to get even for the jolt they were handed when they opened their spring campaign. They play the Red Sox here this afternoon and want to win that one.

The Tribe got rid of most of its bad baseball over in Bradenton, when the Cubs won, 9 to 8. Since then scoring runs has been a very big proposition for the enemy.

Coach Duffy Seeking Third Hurler for B.C.

A three-week search among the rookies for a third reliable hurler to add to his mound staff has left Coach Hugh Duffy of Boston College wondering. There are four boys on the squad who show promise, but not one of them is outstanding.

Two sophomores, members of last year's freshman nine, are given a lot of attention by Duffy. The other two boys are seniors who have had some experience but who failed to make good with the B.C. teams in three former tries.

Charles Murphy and Jimmy Wynn are the two boys who are given the most attention. Murphy is a right-handed pitcher and Wynn is a left-handed pitcher. Both are considered to be good prospects.

The coach is looking for a third hurler to add to his mound staff. He has been looking for a third hurler to add to his mound staff.

Hub Tigers in Vital League Tilts at Arena

With the three contending teams in the throes of a terrific battle for bye position and the vital games this week determining the outcome, the Canadian-American League games for the next six days provide the most thrilling race in professional hockey.

Continuing along a two-point lead with every indication pointing to another championship for them, the Springfield Indians struck a snag Saturday when Providence defeated them.

Only the heart-leaves of the tobacco plant are good enough for

OLD GOLD

... That's the bedrock reason for "not a cough in a carload." The tobacco itself! Indeed, the whole "why" of OLD GOLD's honey-like smoothness rests in these five tobacco facts:

- [1] The finest tobaccos that grow
- [2] Only the "heart-leaves" from the heart of the tobacco plant
- [3] Selected for their silkiness and ripeness to insure that honey-like smoothness
- [4] Extra long mellowing and ageing in a temperature of mid-July sunshine
- [5] All tobacco is pure tobacco

SHAD is in season—more signs of spring, and there's no more delicious way to prepare this favorite fish than by the recipe demonstrated by Carlo Pavia, chef of the Hotel Buckingham, in a cooking lesson and demonstration in the kitchen of the hotel.

First, a four pound cod was cleaned, scaled and cut into four large pieces. The fish was then placed in a large pan of water and boiled for ten minutes. The fish was then placed in a large pan of water and boiled for ten minutes.

How to Wrap a Turban Properly

Doubly Sebastian, film player, gives the correct process of wrapping a turban. Begin with a yard and a half of fabric. Cross it over the head and draw it up. Bring it to the back and cross it shiny side out. Cross again in front. Tuck in the ends at the back and place a shinerstone ornament in the left side. Adjust the folds and you have a nice turban.

Fads and Fashions

A Material Difference Is Im-

material—so long as the price paid for it is identical, according to the latest fashion magazine. Fashion designers are creating evening frocks with contrasting printed tulle and flared chiffon, or flared more and printed chiffon, both fabrics revealing the same trend and color scheme.

Circle of (the form) lustrous arrangements upon the dull surface of a dark, black dress, but, when a dress is made, the form is one of the most important in the design.

Combs of Composition are commonplace. These for daytime use are plain, while those designed for evening wear have the upper edge set in a curve or a series of curves. The short comb, with deeper flared fringes are for those whose hair is long enough to form a small knot. But for women whose hair is long enough to form a small knot, but for women whose hair is long enough to form a small knot, but for women whose hair is long enough to form a small knot.

Larger Lace Scarfs are becoming more and more popular for evening wear. Tinted the same tone as the dress, the lace scarf is considered extremely chic for dressy wear. Unmistakable throws of printed chiffon are also much in vogue for formal wear.

Home Hints

This is a popular French dish, and is prepared as follows. Soft boil the eggs, and peel them carefully, and set in water with a dash of lemon juice. If the dish is to be more substantial, cut a thick slice of butter, ham or tongue, or ham, between the eggs.

The brown marks on plates and dishes, caused by their being overcooked in the oven, can often be removed by rubbing with a little lemon juice.

Save steps from sink to tub—with 2 Chipso boxes

If you keep one Chipso box by the kitchen sink and another by the wash tub or washing machine, Chipso's instant suds are always within easy and instant reach. You have this quick-working helper always at your elbow!

This plan saves bother. It saves your steps. And it saves minutes, too! Chipso's white flakes come in two blue-and-orange boxes. The 10¢ box is a good acquaintance package if you haven't tried Chipso before. Once you know Chipso, the 25¢ size is more practical. It is big enough to dip a cup into whenever you want fluffy, bounteous suds that will quickly and safely loosen the dirt in your clothes. The same size is just as handy at sifting out the few flakes that make a painful of grease-cutting suds for your dishes.

PROCTER & GAMBLE

Dishes in 1/3 less time

Twinkling glass and china—1/3 quicker this way! A few Chipso flakes and hot water make a dishpanful of quick-working suds instantly! If you leave the dishes in Chipso suds for a minute or two, they will be practically ready to rinse without rubbing! Let Chipso suds soak the grease off the utensils, too! Besides being 1/3 quicker, this soaking method saves your hands by keeping them out of dishwater.

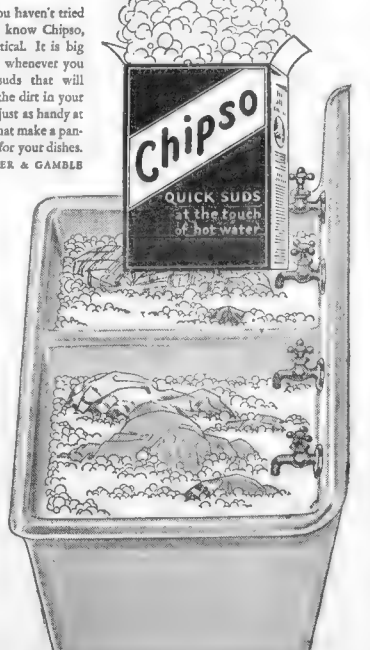

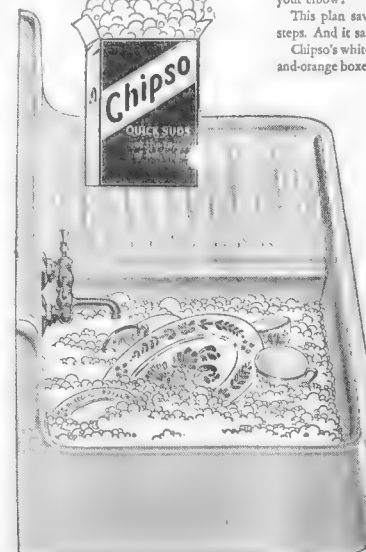

Soaks clothes clean

Five drudgeless steps in a Chipso washday: 1st—Hot water on Chipso gives instant suds. 2nd—20-minute soaking loosens the dirt. 3rd—Squeezing the clothes makes the dirt form out! 4th—Bad spots and soiled edges may need light hand-rubbing. 5th—Rinse and wring. And such white, sweet clothes, as you'll have—to hang out early in the morning!

South is the dealer. What is the proper bidding and play?

In the next issue Mr. Whitehead will explain the proper play on the bidding and play of the above hand. Full out how, what and why compare it with his model.

These hands must not be bid or played "Double Dummy" as though all four hands were visible.

Solution: Points of the Bidding: INDIAN ASSIST

West, though holding a hand that the average high card strength for a defensive bid, passes. It is a defensive bid, medium in value, but North with a strong hand, suit but with average expectancy in hearts, passes the partner's bid. South on the first round and saves a cue suit on the second. Let us receive accurate information as to the nature of the holding. East, although holding slightly below the quick trick strength normally required for a defensive bid, has and rebids Spades because of the strength of the suit and favorable suit distribution of his hand. West, twice evaluating his partner, secures for him the contract at four spades.

Points of the Play: REFLECTING TO MAKE BRIDGE THE PLAY

Tricks 1 and 4. South switches to his partner's Diamond suit and North takes the trick with the 10. A return of the suit would give South a chance to over-trick East but with few Honors in the suit, North's holding is not a strong one. North's return of the suit will trump East's and South will win the trick. The position of the King will be decided by the play of the Queen. If the Queen is unknown, Declarer may attempt a finesse, enabling North to take a fine King, which would give him an Ace. North, instead of returning a Diamond, leads a Club to the next trick.

Trick 4. Good win in West's hand in order to lead a trump thereafter.

Trick 5. East, realizing South's lead of the 2 of Hearts, is in a position to lead a Club to the King of Clubs up to West's partner. According to the position of the Queen of trumps, it is an unattractive finesse, especially if the King is alone in North's suit.

THE MEDITATIONS OF A WIFE

By HELEN ROWLAND

A wife, a girl is a little something of evasive flattery or a too ardent "line"—but at 40, she knows better than to question God's gift.

Borgia's intoxication may even a man into marriage—but it usually takes about six cocktails and a

A man seldom realizes that he is actually married, until he discovers that somebody has been using his tooth brush to clean her jewelry, and his handkerchiefs for removing the make-up.

A woman's love is never quite dead until she ceases to look back upon the man as a "lost opportunity," and begins to think of him as a "lucky escape."

The longer the time between drinks, kisses or love affairs, the greater the kick.

After 40, marriage is no often just a choice between becoming an old maid's health-career or a young man's cash-register.

Most men are like foolish housewives who blunder blindly into the door of marriage—and spend the rest of their lives trying to get out through the window.

After a woman has been married three or four times, she comes to the end and concludes that you don't necessarily change the LUCK just by changing the name.

When a woman has been married three or four times, she comes to the end and concludes that you don't necessarily change the LUCK just by changing the name.

This is the magic season, when many a wife discovers that her husband's emotions are not dead, but his handkerchiefs for removing the make-up.

A DOCTOR'S ADVICE

GO LIGHT ON LAXATIVES!

Everyone needs a laxative AT TIMES. But there's no need for making it a HABIT. If you have the habit, you can be rid of it in thirty days. Or less! And this is how:

The next time you go to take any strong cathartic—don't. Instead, take a little Cascarets. That's not a vicious drug, but the bark of a tree. The laxative made with cascara couldn't harm a child. It is, in fact, the one cathartic many physicians will approve for children. Gentle as it is, cascaring is just through in cleaning the colon as the more powerful purges that actually eat a person's strength.

Proof that there's no habit from cascara begins the very day after taking. Instead of being clogged worse than ever, the bowels are more inclined to move OF THEIR OWN ACCORD. You may have to take cascara several times to establish regularity, but the time you need this gentle stimulus goes further apart. And you NEVER find you must increase the amount. Cascara's ideal form in the candy cascara that pleases any palate, and you'll find them at the first drugstore you pass.

DOL WORSHIPERS

By LUCY LOWELL
HAD you a little dol all winter? perked upon a pedestal some where below which you bend a faithful knee?

Yes, of course you have. Who hasn't? And you've made yourself, or one you've accepted as the harbinger of sorrow, a standing firmly and all-dominating, though perhaps not acknowledged, conclusion.

Something which causes you to feel the staccato urge of propitiation. That fear, possibly expressed in "What will they say?" Jealousy, Quick and easy discontent. Self-doubt. Regret for things past. Doubt of the future.

All these things, dominant and terrible. And sinister.

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

Emm. Mon. Dept.

Having heard so much of your choice, I brought my bathing suit with me when I came from Newark, and upon my arrival to the hotel in New York, I climbed out of the top of my dressing room, across the rafters of the ceiling and without a moment's hesitation, executed a perfect swim dive. You may well imagine my embarrassment when I discovered I had, through ignorance, gotten into the Palais de Glass.

Thinking I'm a little out of the audience with the way we do things in New York, I climbed out of the top of my dressing room, across the rafters of the ceiling and without a moment's hesitation, executed a perfect swim dive. You may well imagine my embarrassment when I discovered I had, through ignorance, gotten into the Palais de Glass.

CHAPTER XIV

MOTHER'S little purse was quite empty, and yet she kept saying, "Charley must have wine and jelly to put him on his feet!"

Oh, how many tables were loaded with the luxuries that were strength, health, is poor little Charley, the Congressman's son.

Oh, I throbbed there on the side with one heart of pity!

Mother walked to the open window, despairingly. The bright sky, the happy faces seemed to taunt her.

The cold wind blew her lovely tresses.

One could scarce see a livid face that here—a full of love, full of sorrow.

At least, so thought Ernest Clay, the artist, for he stopped in the street below and looked and passed and looked again.

The face framed by the window was the embodiment of all his art, the face which he could not, drag if it were.

"I must sketch that face," he said to himself. "Give to poor—that is evident from her features; that she is pure and innocent, one may see in the bewildered expression of her face."

And low and muffled was the voice with which he expressed his request to the unhappy woman high above.

NATIONAL POLICIES OF THE HEARST NEWSPAPERS

1. An agreement of English-speaking peoples to preserve peace among themselves and promote the peace of the world.
2. A constitutional amendment to provide for the election of United States Senators in numbers proportionate to the population of each State, but no State to have less than two Senators. A reapportionment of Congressional representation immediate.

3. By after every census, or in case of the failure of Congress so to act, to make the apportionment automatic at the end of the first Congressional session, the proportion of population for each representative in each case to be that of the existing Congress.
4. A separate Department of the Army, of the Navy and of the Air Force, all united under a Secretary of National Defense.

5. Federal action to the limit of Federal Government powers to abolish Military among the people of the United States, and the creation of a Secretary of Education.
6. Necessary measures to secure the election of Congress in November and its installation on the 1st of January following, and the inauguration of a President on the 1st of January immediately following its election in November.

New Bedford Turns Against the Baby

"WHERE DID YOU COME FROM?"

In the falling birth-rate of the city of New Bedford a sign that the people down there no longer love babies, or does it mean no more than that they have taken their stand with other "advanced" peoples?

Whichever the answer, births in New Bedford last year were fewer by more than 1000 than the births of the year 1920. These are the figures:

1920.....3,673 1924.....3,303
1921.....3,865 1925.....3,180
1922.....3,546 1926.....2,963
1923.....3,475 1927.....2,613

In 1910 the birth-rate was 35, in 1911 it was 41, in 1909 it was 44. Estimating the present population as 120,000 the rate for 1927 was only 21.1 per cent.

In less than twenty years, therefore, the birth-rate has dropped 80 per cent.

When the figures are available it may appear that there has been a smaller falling off in the supply of new babies throughout the State, possibly throughout New England. The birth-rate has been falling quite generally. In England it was nearly 34 per 1000 of the population in the 1880's and is now about 18 per 1000. In Germany during the same period the decline has been from nearly 38 to less than 20.

In the United States the birth-rate in 1900 was close to 30 per 1000; it was down to 25 in 1915 and to 21.4 in 1925.

The masses, it appears plain, ARE cutting down their birth-rate, a fact which should be most interesting to earnest ladies who plead with Legislatures for the enactment of laws making it legal for physicians to advise married persons, "and married persons only," regarding birth control.

No Mystery Play!

Candidates for the National Convention Should Declare Their Presidential Preferences

When Governor Fuller tells the Legislature that an opportunity should be provided for the voter in the Presidential primary to express his preference for President, His Excellency speaks the opinion of the great majority of his fellow citizens.

Out in Minnesota the other day the Democrats in State convention adopted a resolution instructing their delegates to vote as a unit at Houston for Governor Smith and to make Smith their candidate "until he is nominated or releases them."

There you see the organization, the State machine, in operation, leaving nothing to chance.

Why should not the great body of voters, invited to pick and choose among men and women who are to act as THEIR representatives, exercise the same privilege? What else are Presidential primaries for?

Distinguished citizens eager to be sent to Houston or Kansas City can have no reasonable objection to the printing of their Presidential preferences beside their own names on the ballot.

The Presidential primary in this State will be held on April 24th. The Legislature has ample time to make it a REAL primary.

The Heroin School

It Makes Criminals and Holds Them

Many doctors think that modification of the Volstead law would be the best way of fighting the drug habit. But perhaps it would not.

This is certain, the drug heroin is used in making criminals of boys. It is said that ten ounces of heroin would answer legitimate medical purposes of a city with a million population. And such a city uses 10,000 ounces of it.

"Boss criminals" make addicts of boys in their teens. The boys become criminals and obey orders, carry out hold-ups and killing if necessary. They fear the loss of their drug more than the electric chair or noose.

PROHIBITION AFTER EIGHT YEARS

By DR. FRANK CRANE

WE have had a little more than eight years of the Prohibition Amendment to the Constitution. Every violation of the prohibition law has been played up as news, while the vast good that has been done has not been especially noticed.

The question has ceased to be a religious and sentimental one and become commercial and political. It is these aspects that are unannounced.

In the first place the corner saloon has gone, never to return. There are very few people in the United States that want it back. This alone helps a good deal, for alcohol is not publicly exposed to sale to lure the youth of the country.

Very few decisions, and those in the strongholds of the wet, have been handed down adverse to the law. Decisions mostly have gone one way. They uphold the law. The amendment is considered strictly legal by the vast preponderance of judicial opinion. The prohibition code was ratified by three-fourths of the State Legislatures.

During the time since this code went into effect the country has had an unparalleled period of prosperity. This may or may not be due to the prohibition amendment, but it is to be remembered that the wet declared that the amendment would ruin business.

Babson, the statistician, estimates that while $2,000,000,000 was formerly spent for liquor each year, not more than one-tenth of that sum now goes for it. Twenty-three million more people had savings accounts at the close of the five years of prohibition than at the beginning and over one billion dollars of insurance a month has been purchased by the people. The sale of small homes has tripled during these eight years.

Three out of every four of the largest employers have replied favorably to the prohibition questionnaire. Only one in ten condemned the amendment. Deposits in labor banks carried $11,000,000,000 last year. There were no labor banks eight years ago.

Prohibition may be immoral and unjustifiable, according to many writers, but there is no doubt about its economic efficiency.

LISTEN, WORLD!

By ELSIE ROBINSON

NORMAN'S man in again, telling me about his wife. The name old story. She pulled a scene last night, right in front of the company—some sort of a squabble over a "darned fool" and threw the cards in his face. And, of course, he took it.

Every little while Norman's wife blows up like that. And Norman always takes it. Then, the next day, he mumbles around to my office and spills his secret sorrow. You'd think he'd be ashamed to confess humiliation like that, but he isn't. He actually seems to find a dreadfully good thing in it.

Why does he stand for it, year after year? He may be stupid, but it becomes hell to do anything for peace. But that isn't the real reason. Norman really stands for his wife's abuse because HE LIKES IT. He enjoys it.

How can healthy people want to suffer? They don't want to suffer while they're healthy. But sometimes, when minds grow sick, they find a perverse satisfaction in suffering, because it gives them a false sense of their own importance. That is what has happened to Norman.

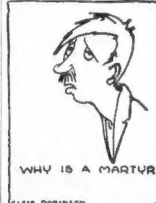

Norman was one of those sensitive young fellows who always seemed to be left on the outside of things. Never could crash in and be one of the crew. Life's a cruel, it people like that. Every normal person wants to be strong and popular. And if something threatens it, they turn on their heel and look for other outlets of expression, other compensations.

Life's greedy. If it can't grow one way it will grow another. Did you ever see a plant that had grown in a cellar? The long, sticky, pale leaves that grow close together, looking for air and sunshine—something to grow on? That's just growing NATURAL. STILL GREEDY. DARKNESS BRINGS OUT SICKLY. SMOOGE LIKE THAT.

Norman's sensitive mind has grown big in darkness—the murky, sick look of his own confused thoughts and thwarted desires. Perhaps some wise, kind person could have led him out of that darkness, but no wise, kind person happened along. So in time he adapted himself to that darkness and to suffering and humiliation. And, presently, he began to find a curious satisfaction in suffering.

SUFFERING GAVE HIM A FLEETING SENSE OF SUPERIORITY. IF HE COULDN'T BE A VICTIM IN LIFE'S STRUGGLE HE

PARIS, March 19—Ours is perhaps the most famous and certainly the most expensive restaurant in Paris. It is one of those places made exclusively for the masses, standing modestly in rue Dauphine, a few steps off rue de la Paix. A tiny sign traces the name in delicate pink.

The cafe is owned by an English syndicate and the manager wears a monocle and red lapel rose usually traces the entrance. The head waiter is a Frenchman, but the waiters are all European royalty. He speaks almost every language, including a little Hindustani, is rich, and a little haughty.

To enter the main dining room one must go through a tiny alley where it is customary for both ladies and gentlemen to stand with feet on the rail for an instant. You are expected to tip the bartender at the bar, the waiter at the table, and you don't the worst goes around the restaurant. It is a test of your skill. There are two dining rooms—one large and intimate and the other a larger room. If you are a favored guest or a person of importance you're seated in the small room. But if the head waiter regards you as nobody you are assigned to the larger.

There is the story of the newly rich American who and been placed in the small room. From his chair, as the big room, so he called the captain, gave him a little frame and asked to be transferred there. He was.

Shiner at Ciro's starts at 5 o'clock, but by 11 it is almost deserted. It is the best restaurant in Paris, save among those who mix with Americans. Earnest Trust Busting

It Is Old-Fashioned Now

Not long ago, to be radical was to be a "trust buster." Every Socialist, Communist, felt that the one enemy was "big business." Do away with that, and everything would be serene.

And now, communism, ruling Russia, establishes the biggest, tightest trust in the world.

All business in Russia is under one control, for the moment in the hands of Alexei Rykov, president of the Council of People's Commissars.

A gigantic Communist trust, governing a nation bigger than the United States, literally controls everything, including wages, the price of wages, and the right of a man to work or to engage in business.

The thing won't last. Human selfishness is older and more powerful than any theory. Old-fashioned business will come back and Russia, like the rest of the world, will be governed as usual, by the desire of one man to have more than another, and by the fact the one man is more intelligent and more cunning than another.

It will not be so forever—civilization will come eventually. But industrial feudalism, growing more wise and benevolent, has only just begun.
